A BRIEF HISTORY

Bishop Heber College traces its origin back to a school founded by the German Missionary, Christian Frederick Schwartz, in 1762. It developed into a College in 1873. Honours Programmes were introduced in 1925. It was closed in 1934 and merged with the Madras Christian College, Tambaram. It was revived in June 1966 in response to the popular and persistent demand for its revival and to meet the growing educational needs of this region. The College is affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, Tamil Nadu, India. The revived College celebrated its Golden Jubilee during the academic year 2016-2017.
