

THE NATIONAL LAW INSTITUTE UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

The National Law Institute University, Bhopal (NLIU), was established by the Rashtriya Vidhi Sansthan Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam, Act No. 41 of 1997, (substituted by Act No. 06 of 2018) enacted by the Madhya Pradesh State Legislature. NLIU is recognized by the University Grants Commission and the Bar Council of India. NLIU is the Second National Law University established after NLSIU, Bangalore.

VISION of NLIU is to become one of the best centers of legal education, training and research in the world.

MISSION of NLIU is to develop and nurture the intellect for the betterment of the nation and humanity through Law and Justice.

OBJECTIVES of the NLIU inter alia, are to contribute to the national development by instilling a sense of responsibility among the students, while simultaneously cultivating in them spirit of intellectual freedom, qualities of leadership, imaginative power and clarity.

NLIU has been designing and delivering courses with a view to enhance the mental ability and intellectual capacity of the students. Our focus is to train the students in the art and science of avoiding and resolving problems within the framework of law.

Courses of Study

1 B.A.LL.B. (Hons.)

Minimum duration of B.A.LL.B (Hons.) course is five academic years and maximum duration is seven academic years. There are two semesters in an academic year. Continuous examination and evaluation are integral part of continuous learning process. Our examination and evaluation scheme is designed to achieve three objectives. First to test the subject knowledge and its application through problem based written examination. Second to assess the research skills of the students, the students are required to write a research paper in every subject in the form of project. Third to evaluate the presentation skills of the students, the students are required to make a presentation of their projects and take Viva-Voce Examination. For further detail visit www.nliu.ac.in.

2 LL.M.

Minimum duration of LL.M. course is one academic year and maximum duration is three academic years. There are two semesters in an academic year. Specialization is offered in the areas of: (1) Intellectual Property & Business Law; (2) Constitutional and Administrative Law; and (3) Human Rights and Criminal Law. Area of specialization is offered subject to the availability of faculty and at least five students opting for it. Scheme of examination and evaluation for LL.M. course is the same as of B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) course. In the final semester a student has to submit a dissertation and take an open defense Viva-Voce Examination. For further detail visit www.nliu.ac.in.
