

MAHARASHTRA NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, NAGPUR

About the University

Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur (MNLU, Nagpur) was established by the Government of Maharashtra by way of enactment known as the Maharashtra National Law University Act (Maharashtra Act No. VI of 2014). Hon'ble Shri Justice S.A. Bobde, Chief Justice of India is the Chancellor of the University. It is a residential university engaged in teaching and promoting research in law and allied disciplines. The authorities of the university are making all possible efforts to bring up state-of-the-art facilities at the university. The university has a competent team of faculty and staff, who are qualified, experienced, committed, and full of zeal to create an institution of excellence in legal education in the country. The university has been granted permission by the UGC to issue Degrees, Diploma etc., under Section 22 of the UGC Act 1956. The University received necessary affiliation from University Grants Commission (UGC) and Bar Council of India (BCI) and it is also a member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU).

The university is the nineteenth National Law University established in the country located in the Orange City of Nagpur and the eighteenth in the CLAT pool. The objectives of the university are manifold mainly to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal processes and their role in national development; to develop sense of responsibility within the students and research scholars; to serve society in the field of law by developing skills in regard to advocacy, legal services, legislation, law reforms and the likes; to organize lectures, seminars, symposia, conferences and capacity building programmes; to promote legal knowledge and to make law and legal processes efficient instruments of social justice and development; to promote traditional, cultural, legal and ethical values with a view to promote and foster the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the Constitution of India; and to liaise with institutions of higher learning and research in India and abroad.

The university has established twenty-eight centres for advanced legal studies and research to address the socio-legal issues and challenges and to conduct cutting edge research on thriving issues of law, social science and humanities. Recently, the Executive Council of University has approved two more centres i.e., Centre for Shastric Studies and Research in Law (CSSRL) and N.R. Madhava Menon Centre for Clinical and Continuing Legal Education. CSSRL is working on introducing LL.M. One Year Postgraduate Degree Course with specialisation in Indian Jurisprudence and Legal Research. Some of these centres have already started working on offering courses, conducting seminars, conferences, and training programmes for the identified target groups.

The university has inked Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with prominent law universities of the country for the purpose of academic collaboration to facilitate student and faculty exchange programme between the universities. Some of them are: National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bangalore; National Law University, Delhi; Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab; The Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai (TISS), Mumbai; Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar; National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam; Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad; Kavikulaguru Kalidas Sanskrit University (KKSU), Ramtek; Vasant Rao Naik State Agricultural Extension Management Training Institute (VANAMATI); and National Academy of Legal Studies and Research (NALSAR) University of Law, Hyderabad.

These MoU facilitate the University to operationalise its vision and mission of ensuring academic collaboration that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between the two universities; collaborate in academic events, teaching, training and research; offer full time as well as optional courses to the undergraduate and postgraduate degree courses offered at these universities on mutually agreeable terms and conditions; supervise Ph.D. scholars in interdisciplinary areas of research having interface with law; and initiate other academic activities, research and publication. In addition to this, active efforts will be made to develop joint training and research programmes that will be pursued in a collaborative spirit.

The university has taken various steps towards welfare of the students such as providing in campus Health and Wellness centre with a male and female doctor/s, career counsellor, personality developer and medical insurance to all the students for which the university bears the premium from its own sources. The students are expected to act according to the reputation of the university and be sensitive towards the surroundings in their behaviour, attire and manners. University strictly prohibits actions such as ragging, sexual harassment, etc. and views these actions as serious issues for disciplinary proceedings leading to expulsion from the university, if proved.

Infrastructure of the University

The university has started its operation in the year 2016 from the temporary campus at Judicial Officers Training Institute (JOTI), Civil lines, Nagpur and continued in the same campus till June 2017. At present, the university is functioning from a rented premise of around 38,000 sq.

ft. built-up area in Khapri, Wardha road, Nagpur. The Halls of Residence for the students are two kilometres away from the present university premises. The University and Halls of Residence are fully Wi-Fi enabled. The university provides transportation facility between the Halls of Residence and the University. The sanctioned permanent campus of the university is located at Waranga, Nagpur (rural) on a sprawling 60 acres of land provided by the Government of Maharashtra. It is about 12 kilometres from the Nagpur Airport.

An Infrastructure Development Monitoring Committee (IDMC) (later renamed as Building Committee) was constituted to monitor the construction of the permanent campus of the university from the beginning till its completion. The IDMC in its first meeting held on July 12, 2016 resolved that the university shall hold a 'Limited Architectural Design Competition' as per 'Architectural Competition Guidelines' framed by the Council of Architecture of India, New Delhi. The 'Limited Architectural Design Competition' took place on July 29 and 30, 2017 wherein the top Ten (10) architectural firms participated in the competition which had been adjudged by a Board of Assessors comprising of seven eminent members. All the Ten (10) designs and models were put up for public display from August 6-8, 2017 at Chitnavis Centre, Civil Lines, Nagpur. The Bangalore based architectural firm 'Architect Paradigm' was the winner of the Limited Architectural Design Competition. The proposed campus would have a unique blend of state-of-the-art facilities, student-centric academic and non-academic facilities and barrier-free design. The campus will be sustainable and self-sufficient to the possible extent. The focus areas in making the campus green would be on sustainable site planning, energy efficiency and conservation, water efficiency and management, waste management, sustainable building materials and indoor environmental quality.

Library Facilities

The university has developed its own library within a very short span of time with physical copy of more than 15,000 titles. The university has received donations from various legal luminaries and institutions for the development of the library. The university also has access to various physical and virtual databases such as 'AIR INFOTECH Database' provided to all its students of undergraduate and postgraduate degree course, research scholars, faculty members and hard copies of 'AIR' to the library ranging from 1961 to till date, hard copies of Supreme Court Cases from 1969 to till date, complete set of the 'Journal of Indian Law Institute' from 1960 to till date and 'Annual Survey of Indian Law' from 1965 to till date, etc. besides online databases such as, SCC Online, Westlaw India, LexisNexis, HeinOnline, TAXMANN, Kluwer Arbitration, Kluwer Competition Law, etc.

Academic Activities

Presently the university offers B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course and One-Year LL.M. Degree Course besides offering Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Programme from May 2017 and is committed towards achieving excellence in the field of legal education by promoting innovative research in the field of law, social sciences and humanities. Doctoral programme is an integrated programme wherein scholars from different streams are eligible for admission provided that their research interfaces with public policy or law.

In addition to regular classes, the students are encouraged to participate in moot court competitions, seminars, conferences, workshops, debates etc. All Saturdays are earmarked for value addition lectures, interactive sessions, and panel discussions by domain experts from different areas of law. Such interactions add a well-rounded perspective to the students learning about law and allied subjects. The university has also introduced a unique method of understanding of law and its nuances through 'Mind Mapping Technique' developed and executed in the classroom by an eminent scholar.

The students are involved in various committees such as Publication Committee, Hostels and Hospitality Committee, Academic Committee, Literary and Debate Committee, Cultural Committee, Sports Committee, Internship Coordination Committee, Information Technology Committee, Moot Court Committee, Legal Aid Committee and Student Welfare Committee that help in the conduct and execution of routine, academic and non-academic activities of the students. Such activities develop a sense of accountability and organisational skills among the students which leads to honing their leadership qualities and developing team work culture.

Although, the university is a recently established institution in the group of premium law schools in India, it has already been graced with the presence of eminent personalities from the legal and non-legal background within a short period of its operation like Hon'ble Shri.
